How did you hear about us?

Short Answer- limited to 255 characters

1. PT Arkansas is a Christian Organization affiliated with the United Methodist Church, What excites you about working with our organization, specifically in regard to this? Do you have any reservations about serving with our organization?
2. Project Transformation's mission is to engage children, churches, and college-age young adults in purposeful relationships. How does this align with your personal mission and values?

3. What do believe is one of the most pressing social justice issues our world is facing today and why? What is one step that the church could or should take to address this social justice issue?
4. You will be expected to act in a professional manner and exhibit behavior of high morals/values as you will be acting as a role model for the children in our program. Do you feel you can uphold these expectations? Do you have any questions about this?
5. Do you have access to transportation that would allow you to reliably go to work? Note: Transportation can be provided in limited circumstances.
6. PT Arkansas provides housing to young adults serving on the ministry track. What is your experience living in community housing? What is your interest level in intentional community living in Pine Bluff?
7. Do you have any experience helping children learn to read and/or working in elementary education? If so, explain your role.

Long Answer- Up to 13,000 characters

1. What do children need from their adult leaders? Evaluate your leadership in light of those needs you described.
2. Theologian bell hooks said, “Beloved community is formed not by the eradication of difference but by its affirmation.” Using examples from your life, explain how you agree or disagree with this statement. How might you affirm differences this summer?
3. Many of the children in our program come from households and communities that are under-resourced. What do you think of when you hear the term “under-resourced?” How has the presence or absence of resources impacted your life? Your education?
