Term of Service: May 20, 2026 - July 25, 2026

Application Process: Applicants apply online via <https://ptnational.my.site.com/JobApplication/s/>

- 3 professional references required for application
- A professional resume is preferred but not required. May be sent to deniff@ptriotexas.org
- Interview process required for all potential candidates

Position Summary: Project Transformation's (PT) collegiate summer experience is a hands-on, 10-week internship meant to ignite and equip service-oriented leaders to invest in their community. Interns will strategically live and work in teams to connect with children from diverse cultural, social, and economic backgrounds through an equitable lens. Alongside PT staff and volunteers, interns will support children in activity sessions to promote their social-emotional development and passion for reading. Activity Coordinators (ACs) are responsible for implementing fun & engaging activities with the children. AC's ensure the safety of children during play, teach lesson plans, and convey curriculum in a meaningful way.

Project Transformation Rio Texas Mission and Vision: The mission of Project Transformation is to transform communities by engaging children, college-age young adults, and churches in purposeful relationships. We envision a world that is rooted in love, pursues the equity of all people, and amplifies God's call on every life.
