

Serving with Project Transformation Opens the Door to Seminary

Has seminary education ever crossed your mind? Serving an internship with Project Transformation not only helps clarify a call to ministry, but its national partnerships also offer a financial pathway to get to and through seminary! Project Transformation alumni have exclusive access to special scholarships and early admission decision consideration from these renowned institutions:

- Early admissions decisions for all PT alumni (applications are due November 1 for the following fall entry; decisions will be made by December 15).
  - Consideration for special merit-based awards covering half-tuition or greater with 3.0 undergraduate GPA or higher and a PT chapter recommendation; provide 100% tuition scholarships for PT alumni who have an undergraduate GPA of 3.5 and above and a PT chapter recommendation. Early consideration for Community Engagement Fellows positions (upon receipt of additional CEF essay), which includes an additional stipend of $15,000 and intracurricular entrepreneurial opportunities.

- Preferred consideration and early decision for admission to all PT alumni with at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA, and who have completed all the prerequisites for admission to SMU, including submission of materials by October 15.

- Early consideration for scholarships and other forms of financial aid. Decisions will be communicated by December 1st, including pertinent information about a possible scholarship award, if any.

- Priority admission decisions for all PT alumni (applications are due by January 15 for entry for the following fall; decisions released by February 15).
  - Special merit-based awards covering half-tuition to PT alumni who apply by the priority admission deadline and are admitted to the Master of Divinity program and who, in addition to meeting the minimum criteria for admission eligibility, have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and a chapter recommendation; consider PT alumni who apply by the priority admissions deadline and are admitted to the Master of Divinity program and who, in addition to meeting the minimum criteria for admission eligibility, have a cumulative GPA of 3.75 and higher and a chapter recommendation for honors scholarships.
